

Chamber Asks $105,000 Budget for 1960-61

MOBILITY IS A KEY FACTOR in the world of boys—and five-year-old Danny Munday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Munday, Desert Hot Springs, rides the range with the best of them as he investigates the hundreds of things boys have to check on with his brother, Kenny. Danny, a daily clinic patient at the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation in Desert Hot Springs, can't walk now—but with the aid of the stainless steel wheelchair donated to the clinic by Mr. and Mrs. Julian Baumberger, Salt Lake City, he gets to lots of places—and brother Kenny helps over the rough spots. Danny is learning to walk with braces now, and gets strengthening daily exercise in the AVCCF therapy pool. The Mundays moved to Desert Hot Springs from Manhattan Beach three years ago; Mrs. Munday is active with Foundation work, including the Teen Angel Teens. (Sun Photo).

MAYOR ADDS VOICE TO RETARDED UNIT

Mayor Frank M. Bogert accepted the honorary chairmanship of the newly formed Citizens Advisory Committee on Retarded Children here yesterday afternoon, "without reservation."

Mayor Bogert, terming the problems of mentally retarded children "close to my heart," stated that "my only regret is that my schedule prevents me from being active chairman."

THE MAYOR continued, "I feel strongly that the wisest thing our unified school district could do would be to begin immediately a school program for the training and education of these too often forgotten children."

An oral report on "further consideration of a request to establish a program for severely mentally retarded" children will be given to the Palm Springs Unified School District board in its 7:30 p.m. meeting today by Schools Supt. Dwight E. Twist. The school board requested an administrative study of the problem in the last regular board meeting.

U. S. Flies Two Field Hospitals To Chile Today

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The United States today began flying two complete Army field hospitals and 420 doctors, nurses and enlisted medical personnel to help Chile's earthquake victims.

Twenty-four big transport planes were loaded and started leaving Ft. Bragg, N.C., and Andrews Air Force Base, Md., early this morning. The planes were from McGuire AFB, N.J., Charleston AFB, S.C., and Dover AFB, Del.

Large supplies of medicine, including anti-tetanus and anti-gangrene serum and blood plasma, were included in the shipment. The Defense Department said 27 doctors and 62 nurses were to be in the first wave of planes. Enlisted medical personnel totaling 331 men also were going to staff the two field hospitals.

2½-Hour Debate

Temple Expansion Gets Council Okeh

After a two and a half hour debate between representatives of the Jewish Community Center and attorneys representing property owners on Chino Drive, the City Council last night approved a Conditional Use Permit, change of zone, and abandonment of Vine Street for the expansion of the Jewish Community Center.

Protestants to the expansion of the Temple Isaiah were not only present in person but represented by two attorneys — William O. Burt of Palm Springs and C. C. Shoemaker of Los Angeles.

PALM SPRINGS Attorney Saul Ruskin was legal representative for the Community Center. The council did refuse to change the recommendation of the Planning Commission at the request of Ruskin, who asked if the 15-foot height limit imposed on the project by the commission could not be lifted.

PROTESTANTS SAID that the height of the building was one point "of which we are the most afraid. It will cut off our view of the mountains."

The abandonment of Vine Street is in reality the moving of the street further west so as to allow the tying in of the Community Center as a single plant, undivided by a thoroughfare. The new road will connect Alejo with Patencia Road on a diagonal. Church parking will be just east of the new street.

Chamber Bids For $105,000 60-61 Budget

Smith Tells City Council Chamber Needs Maximum Sum

Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, in its annual request for budget consideration, asked Palm Springs City Council in a letter last night for a budget of $105,000, for advertising, publicity and its Convention and Visitors Bureau.

William H. Smith, President, in the letter to the council, said that it was the "unanimous opinion of the board (of the Chamber) that for the fiscal year 1960-61 request be made for the maximum amount allowable as based on assessed valuation."

"BASED ON AN anticipated assessed valuation of $70,000,000 this would amount to the sum of $105,000," he wrote.

"To pinpoint the dire need for funds to put Palm Springs into a competitive position with rival resorts who are spending much more money to attract the tourist, convention and potential home owner," Smith said, "we feel further delay in allocating the legal maximum allowable will handicap this community in such a manner as to make the work ever increasingly difficult to attain a position Palm Springs justifiably should hold in the resort picture."

SMITH ALSO pointed out in his letter that last year business license fees were increased to provide additional income for the promotional effort and "on this basis it was sold to business license holders."

"Only a small percentage of this money was used however, the larger portion going to guarantee the operation of the municipal golf course," he said.

FORESTRY FIREMEN HUSTLE TO BLAZE—IT'S BURNING TOAST

CATHEDRAL CITY — Where there's smoke, there's a fire department, but some days it doesn't seem worth all that trouble. California Division of Forestry fire fighters here just called the whole thing a false alarm when they responded to a hurry-up call Wednesday — and found an electrical short in a toaster.

"It made quite a bit of smoke," one patient fireman observed.

BEVERLY'S MOTHER FACES DELINQUENCY COUNTS IN COURT

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Mrs. Florence Adland, 33, the platinum-haired mother of Beverly Aadland, 17, goes on trial today on charges of contributing to her daughter's delinquency.

Mrs. Adland is accused of five counts, including being intimate with a sailor in Beverly's presence, allowing Beverly to occupy a bed with a man, and allowing Beverly to drink intoxicants.

Mrs. Adland faces a maximum sentence of $1,000 fine and one year in jail on each count.

Village Schools In Condemnation Action Tuesday

INDIO — A condemnation suit brought by the Palm Springs Unified School District against Richfield Investment Company over the price of approximately 13 acres of a circular school site in the Dream Homes area in Palm Springs, will begin in Superior Court here before Judge Merrill Brown Tuesday.

Issues of the suit have been reduced by counsel stipulations to the question of price. The school district alleges that a price of approximately $85,000 had been established for the property by appraisers for the school district, Richfield, and a third joint appraisal — and that an officer of Richfield had agreed to the establishment of price by the three appraisals.

Richfield is seeking approximately $126,000 for the acreage. Jack Miles, Palm Springs district assistant superintendent of schools and business manager for the district, told The Desert Sun the district may seek a reduction from the $85,000 price.

"There were some road dedications in the plot which the appraisers didn't know about — for the dedications weren't recorded. They might amount to several acres," Miles said.

EXPENSES LISTED, in the release signed by committee chairman Maurice McCann were: General government, $10,000; police department, $13,800; fire department, $8,400; street construction and maintenance, $5,000; all other $10,000, for a total of $47,200.

The committee also announced plans, if incorporation succeeds, to acquire surplus equipment from the federal government for the police, fire and street departments.

MEANWHILE, SAM Arner, president of the Cathedral City Taxpayers Association, which is opposing incorporation under the present boundaries, continued his group's campaign with a mailing to all taxpayers.

It charged that non-property owners would outnumber the property owners if an election was held by 325 to 227, and urged property owners to sign the petition against election before July 1.

Arner said that there are 171 Cathedral City property owners who "live elsewhere and are not registered voters and cannot vote to protect themselves."

WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Generally sunny today and Friday. Warmer today with high temperatures from 80 to 90 upper valleys and 90 to 100 lower valleys. Continued warm Friday. Yesterday's high, 89, low, 51.

TICKETS, TICKETS, and more tickets are being sold for the 15th annual Firemen's Fry, at Tamarisk Park starting at 7 p.m., Saturday, June 11. Taking orders at the telephone numbers—with tickets to be delivered—are, left to right, Don Brower, engineer; Bud Moser, captain; Warren Empey, battalion chief, and Chuck Travers, fireman. Numbers where tickets can be ordered are 5-2223, 4-3830 and 4-2765.

CC FINANCE PLAN TOLD BY COMMITTEE

CATHEDRAL CITY — Citizen's Committee for incorporation of Cathedral City today distributed a statement on estimated income and expenses, which would leave a net income of $10,740.

Included in income to be derived by the community, if incorporated, in the opinion of the committee, are: One per cent sales tax, $12,000; gas tax subventions, $5,250; motor vehicle subventions, $10,700; other subventions, $1,190, and fines, licenses and fees, $2,800, which with property taxes of $26,000 would produce a total of $57,940.

EXPENSES LISTED, in the release signed by committee chairman Maurice McCann were: General government, $10,000; police department, $13,800; fire department, $8,400; street construction and maintenance, $5,000; all other $10,000, for a total of $47,200.

The committee also announced plans, if incorporation succeeds, to acquire surplus equipment from the federal government for the police, fire and street departments.

It charged that non-property owners would outnumber the property owners if an election was held by 325 to 227, and urged property owners to sign the petition against election before July 1.

Arner said that there are 171 Cathedral City property owners who "live elsewhere and are not registered voters and cannot vote to protect themselves."

The President made the statement to Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, as they left a special breakfast for congressional leaders at which he threw his "wholehearted" support behind a Senate investigation of events leading up to the summit collapse.

U.N. Rejects Red Condemnation

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The U. N. Security Council today rejected Soviet Russia's demand to condemn the United States for its spy flights over Russia.

The vote was 7-2 with Ceylon and Tunisia abstaining. Russia lost out in its bid to brand the United States an aggressor after U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge told the council Russia had planted a microphone in the American Embassy in Moscow.

TWO LOST DOGS BEING HELD AT HUMANE SHELTER

Two young dogs — evidently lost — are now at the Palm Springs Humane Shelter Association, 395 Sunny Dunes Road.

A purebred boxer puppy, five to six months old and female, was picked up on North Palm Canyon Drive, and a five months old part boxer, also female, was found near Tamarisk Country Club.

Both dogs appear to be well cared for, shelter officials said.

Resignation Of Premier Is Demanded

U.S.-Japan Security Pact Held Cause Of Demonstrations

TOKYO (UPI) — Tens of thousands of leftist demonstrators besieged Premier Nobusuke Kishi in the Parliament Building for more than 12 hours today, attacked police with rocks and then marched on the American Embassy screaming against President Eisenhower's planned visit.

In Washington, U. S. officials said President Eisenhower's trip to Japan next month might be postponed unless the Japanese government gives assurances that his reception will not be endangered by political turmoil.

MORE THAN 1,000 policemen massed in front of the main gate of the embassy to block any attempt to smash into the embassy compound. The demonstrators didn't try. Instead they snaked-danced past yelling anti-Eisenhower slogans.

Police said 200,000 persons joined the Tokyo demonstrations and that throughout Japan the total reached two million persons. It was the seventh consecutive day of protests against the U.S.-Japanese treaty. Observers called this the biggest demonstration ever held in Japan.

THE LEFT WING opponents of the U. S. - Japanese security treaty — equipped with Communist party sound trucks — shouted demands for "Kishi resign" and for Eisenhower to cancel his June visit.

After passing the American Embassy the huge throngs began streaming toward Tokyo's main railway station many blocks away where they planned to disperse and board commuter trains that would take them back home. By then more than 100,000 had thronged.

KISHI REMAINED in his office and looked nervously out the window from time to time as a roar swelled up from the crowd for him to resign because he had aligned Japan with the United States in the cold war.

'I've Been Around'

Hayes 'Surprised' He'd Been Missed

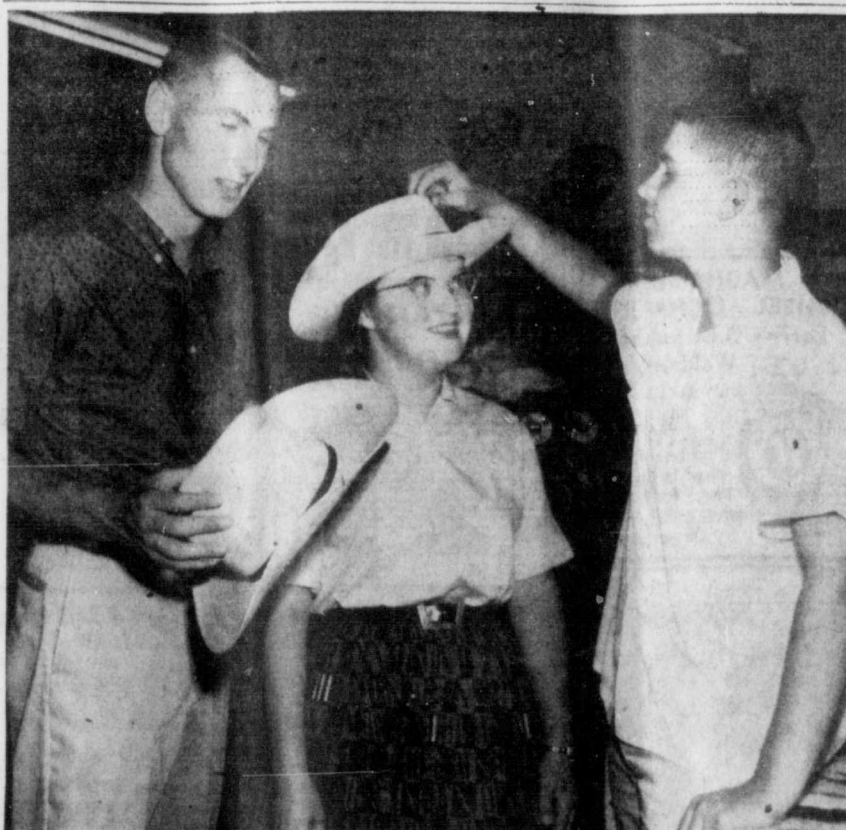

SPECIAL TO THE DESERT SUN LOS ANGELES — Hal B. Hayes, millionaire contractor, former finance of Zsa Zsa Gabor and frequent Palm Springs visitor, flew into town last night from Mexico City and said he was surprised at reports that he was missing.

He drove up to a Sunset Strip restaurant with an attractive unidentified blonde and held a news conference and said that he had been busy recently visiting cities out of the country.

"I HAVE BEEN in Paris, Hong Kong, Cairo, Beirut, and Mexico City, Thursday (today) I am leaving again on business," he said. "Difficulties over construction at several military bases under Capehart Housing contracts will be settled," and added that his firm's obligations were in "excess of $60,000,000, but there are ample funds and assets to meet any and all obligations."

IN AN EXCLUSIVE story yesterday, the Los Angeles Herald-Express reported that Hayes "had not been seen or heard from by his friends, his home, or his employees for the past two weeks."

Attention was drawn to Hayes' "disappearance" when work was halted on several Capehart projects because of suits by subcontractors on an El Paso, Texas, project which totaled $6,500,000.

HAVEN'T STRUCK OIL YET—but these Desert Hot Springs fifth grade pupils are sure prepared. The entire class researched American oil and gas production methods, and wrote reports ranging up to 1,700 words, including bibliography. The class also prepared the background mural, showing oil and gas exploration and drilling methods, production and distribution details. Shown from left are Danny Hudson, Kenneth Gunn, and Danny Warner, who built the electrically-operated pump models. (Desert Sun Photo)

DHS FIFTH GRADE CLASS RIGS OIL WELL MODELS

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Pupils in Miss Anne McVey's fifth grade class here have just completed intensive research in the story of petroleum that has resulted in three working models of oil pump rigs, a wall mural, and individual research papers that ranged up to 1,700 words on oil, its production, and usage.

Patty Green, fifth grade class secretary, prepared a press release which explained:

"THE FIFTH GRADE class of Desert Hot Springs became quite interested in the progress of oil after having studied oil in both our science and social studies textbooks. We decided to make a unit on oil, and call it 'Oil Progress is Our Progress.'"

"Kenneth Gunn made an oil pump, and a derrick; Danny Warner made a generator pump; Danny Hudson made an oil pump that is run by dry cell batteries. We discovered many of the scientific principles and laws involved in these 'mock' oil pumps and wells. We made charts on the many uses of oil and how it has progressed since the first well in the United States in 1859.

"CARL STORY has spent the past two years in Saudi Arabia where his father is an oil well driller. He was able to give us a lot of good information on the big oil companies there. Each of us wrote a 1,500-word research paper on oil and its progress in our world. We painted a large mural on oil, starting with many layers of rock in the earth, showing how the pipe lines pumped by derricks carry the oil to the refineries, tank farms, trucks, tankers or barges, and cities."

Members of the class who did extensive work on the project were:

KENNETH GUNN, Lawrence Hill, Garry Garmin, Steven Spillman, Jimmy Vanhooser, Daniel Warner, Carl Story, Timmy Thorp, Danny Hudson, Steven Perryman, Patricia Corrigan, Barbara Flannery, Patricia Green, Emily Harnage, Gary Lynn Holquin, Randa Jacobson, Linda Lagan, Julie Newberry, Penelope Prosky, Jackie Quick, Marian Ruiz, Patricia Scholer, Peggy West, Suzanne Wichman, Lorinda Baker, Lisbeth Reynolds, Nancy Touchstone, Linda Thomas.

The class reported rather typical luck in the high-risk oil business, where break-even odds are nine-to-one against you; they haven't struck any oil under the model pumps.

Hearing Due On CVTC Plea For Parking

PD Property Owners, Residents Oppose Location of Lot

Opposition by residents and owners of property near the site for which the planning commission approved a parking lot for the Coachella Valley Telephone Company in Palm Desert led the Board of Supervisors to set a hearing this week for June 20 at 10 a.m.

The supervisors received eight letters, and one petition with 10 signatures, protesting the proposed parking lot on Alessandro Drive between San Juan and San Luis Rey Avenues.

IN A LETTER TO the board Newman stated that the parking lot would be used for overnight parking of company vehicles based at Palm Desert and for off-street parking for employees and customers.

He said use of the lot would be limited to passenger cars and repair and installation vehicles.

Franklin Life's Village Agent Accorded Honor

George A. Miller, General Agent in Palm Springs for the Franklin Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Ill., has won membership in the firm's exclusive President's Club as the result of outstanding April sales.

Club membership is limited to Franklin's 25 leading producers each month.

Franklin new paid sales in April totaled $60 million, showing an 11 per cent increase in new business during the first four months of this year.

Midas Makes Red Complaint Trivial

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—A majority of the Security Council was reported agreed today that Soviet complaints about U. S. spy planes were trivial in the light of the new American Midas II satellite.

U. N. sources predicted a 7-2 vote against Russia in its demand that the United States be condemned for the "aggressive acts" of its air reconnaissance teams, with Ceylon and Tunisia abstaining.

Little is known about the origin of the squirrel in America—but he was here to greet the first colonists.

Kansas Vacation For Christine Lillian

By JEAN PATANE

Pioneer resident Christine Lillian, owner of Sven-Ska Bungalows, left Friday to spend the summer visiting members of her family in Kansas. Before returning to the desert she will spend several weeks in San Francisco.

Emil Greener, who suffered a slight stroke last Thursday, is improving satisfactorily at his home on Grove Street.

Coming down with Mrs. Emmy Wennermark from Los Angeles, to spend the weekend with her at her desert home, were her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Mol also of Los Angeles. Before coming to Los Angeles thirteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Mol made their home in Holland.

Mrs. Olive Nickerson left Wednesday to spend the rest of the week at her ranch in Barstow.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Janulis joined Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maloney of Palm Desert and their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morehouse of Huntington Beach for the North Shore Club's Beachcomber Luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse flew in for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Woods of Pueblo, Colorado were weekend houseguests at the home of her nephew and family the Walter Colglaziers. Mr. and Mrs. Woods are visiting relatives in California and taking in the many points of interest. Sunday the Colglaziers and their guests visited Joshua Tree and Pioneer Town.

Here from Napa were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ingraham and children Rick and Kathy to spend the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hagen. They returned north Monday morning.

Miss Lynn Shaut arrived Sunday from Redding, Penna. for an extended visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Shaut at their home on "G" Street.

Over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Massie of Brown and Massie Food Brokers, and children Melinda and Mike of Covina had as their houseguests at their desert home, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Connelly and three children from Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Will Higgins and two daughters from Pasadena.

Mrs. Fern Scott spent the weekend at the home of her sister Mrs. Florence Koenig in Anaheim. Monday she spent visiting the fashion houses selling interesting apparel for Scott's Desert Wear. Wednesday night Mrs. Scott and Dr. and Mrs. Harry LeVantine were on the refreshment committee for the Sidewinders weekly square dance held at the Elks Club in Indio.

Elections Baffling? Try Library Books

By JERRY YANEK
You may be too young to vote, but you're never too young to learn!

What better time to get acquainted with some highlights of your country's history than during this exciting election year of 1960?

IN JUNE COME the primaries, in November the presidential elections, and in between the two you can brush up on your American heritage of flags and presidents.

"How?" you ask.
In the pleasantest way possible, of course. By joining one of the summer reading clubs at Welwood Murray Memorial Library.

"THE EVOLUTION of the American Flag" club will award flag stickers for the books you read—starting with colonial banners right on through the first "Stars and Stripes" and up to the newest version of "Old Glory," which adds Alaska and Hawaii to the "forty-eight!"

The "Our Presidents" club will give you presidential portrait stickers ranging from Washington to Eisenhower — and there's even one last unlabeled frame for "Who Knows Who" (you can sketch that one in yourself after the November elections!)

COLORFUL BOOKMARKS with a picture of our flag and the "Pledge of Allegiance," and others with the Presidential Seal, plus a helpful list of all our presidents (and their political affiliations) in chronological order, are waiting for all book club members.

And that's not all! The Branch Library at 131 Morongo will be open all summer with a reading club of its own. The theme is a library which you'll "build" yourself by earning multi-colored book stickers for the books you read!

The party climaxed the winter story hour season will be held at the Branch at 3 o'clock on Wednesday, June 1. Be sure to come for the fun, and to find out all about the summer story hour schedule and the book club plans as well!

Want to be cool and clever? When summer's finally here? Relax and read the books you missed During the rest of the busy year!

U.S. to Probe Removal of Ironwood

Land Management Director Slated Personal Inquiry

WASHINGTON — Congressman D. S. Saund announced that he has arranged for the Director of the Federal Bureau of Land Management to come to Imperial County to make a personal study of the removal of ironwood from public lands in the Valley.

The top official of the Washington bureau, Edward Woolzey, assured Saund that he will go to El Centro about June 12 "to look into the situation personally."

SAUND SAID HE had been in close touch with officials of the Bureau of Land Management in Washington and California since last October, when Imperial County District Attorney James E. Marable contacted him to register the protest of county officials to the wholesale removal of dead ironwood "by the truckload" from government land in Imperial Valley.

In February, Supervisor Chairman S. D. Carey sent Saund a resolution of the Imperial County Board of Supervisors. An investigation by the Bakersfield district manager of the Bureau was made at Saund's request.

SAUND AGAIN contacted Woolzey when Supervisor Paul Gillett wrote him a long letter on April 27, pointing out that if the dead ironwood logs continue to be removed at the present rate, the Valley will be "so depleted of this natural desert lore that our grandchildren will find it hard to even secure any knowledge of this particular variety of wood."

As a result of Saund's most recent appeal, Woolzey agreed to have his California personnel make a further study and go to Imperial Valley himself to make his own investigation next month.

Youth Arrested in 'Do-It-Yourself' Collection Try

PALM DESERT — A 17-year-old youth's attempt at a "do-it-yourself" collection of $14 allegedly owed him by a service station operator here resulted in arrest on burglary charges instead.

The youth was arrested by sheriff's deputies after he was discovered attempting to burglarize Jerry Malone's Union 76 station late Wednesday night, deputies reported today.

He was down in the station attempting to choose merchandise when Malone stopped by to check the station. Malone called sheriff's deputies, who found the suspect inside, unable to get out.

CHP CITES CAUSES OF ROAD MISHAPS

Right-of-way violations are second only to excessive speed as the leading cause of traffic accidents, Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, declared in urging all motorists to be prepared to yield the right-of-way to the other driver in order to prevent a collision.

"A good rule to follow is to never insist on taking the right-of-way even when you are sure it is legally yours," Crittenden continued. "Being prepared and willing to yield instead of taking the right-of-way is the mark of a safe, courteous driver and stricter adherence to this principle would reduce the frequency of intersection accidents."

RIGHT-OF-WAY situations occur most frequently when two or more automobiles approach an intersection at approximately the same time. At intersections without traffic control devices such as stop or yield signs or traffic signals, the first vehicle in the intersection has the right-of-way. But when two cars enter the intersection at the same time, the driver of the vehicle on the left must yield the right-of-way to the vehicle on the right.

Allergy Causes

SAYRE, Pa. (UPI) — Infections, emotional upsets and glandular disorders trigger most allergies, according to Dr. James M. Steele. He said many persons, undergo intensive but futile tests for a sensitizing agent when allergy is suspected.

'COPTER CREWMEN LAND, PICK UP MISSING DOOR

MARYVILLE, Tenn. — (UPI) — Two helicopter crewmen weren't even fazed when the door of their whirlybird fell off 1,000 feet up Monday and slammed onto the roof of John L. Haynes' home near here.

Lt. Cecil Blanton and Lt. Grady Oxford, both of Fort Campbell, Ky., landed the 'copter in a nearby field, claimed their door, and took off again for training maneuvers at Fort Bragg, N.C.

DHS School Sets Student Awards Next Wednesday

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — The Desert Hot Springs school assembly for the presentation of awards to outstanding pupils will be held at 1:30 p.m., next Wednesday afternoon, in the school cafeteria.

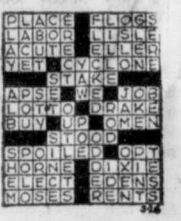

Principal Joseph Kanya announced awards will be presented at this time for citizenship, essay on Americanism, and for poetry. Parents and the public are cordially invited to attend the assembly.

Kanya also announced the program for Promotion Day of the sixth grade, to be held on June 9, at 7:30 p.m. It will include the following features: —The School Chorus and Orchestra; Dances of Hawaii by the girls of the sixth grade; American Folk Dances; and a skit, "No More Arithmetic," by the sixth grade boys.

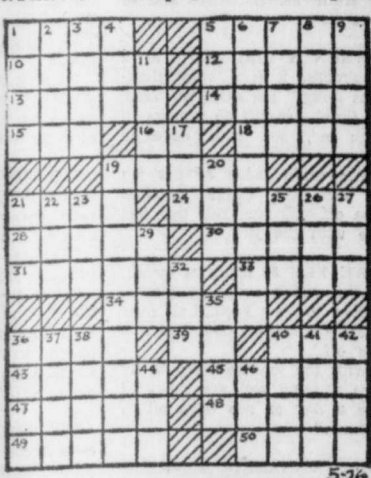

The program will be hosted by the Desert Hot Springs Parent - Teacher Guild, and refreshments will be served following the program.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and everyone says I am pretty enough to be in the movies, on TV or on Broadway. I date a lot. I don't like to hurt men, so I tell them from the start I don't want to get serious for a long time.

One young man (26) won't accept this. He keeps talking about marriage. We argue about this all the time. No matter how I treat him, he won't break up with me. The dirtier I treat him, the better he likes me. He always wants to know who else I date and where we go. I never lie to him. He has even gone out looking for me when I'm with someone else. And if he finds me, he will sit in a corner and sulk. How can I get rid of him?

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and everyone says I am pretty enough to be in the movies, on TV or on Broadway. I date a lot. I don't like to hurt men, so I tell them from the start I don't want to get serious for a long time. This man sounds possessive, jealous and childish, and people who react favorably to being treated "dirty" are also a little sick. DEAR ABBY: The wife and I are in our late fifties and she is getting on my nerves so bad I can hardly stand it. We have five grandchildren. I think they are cute—but my wife thinks there are no five children in the world to compare with them. She carries about 300 pictures everywhere she goes. When she runs into someone on the street, she hauls out these pictures and you can see the bored expressions on their faces as they try to get away. All she ever talks about is her grandchildren and the cute things they said. It is sickening! People are starting to run when they see her coming. I am ready to run myself. Is there any cure? DEAR GRANDPA: There is no cure for the doting grandmother. Pray for the day she meets her match head-on.

What's the Slogan for '60?

It won't be too long and voters throughout the United States will be faced with political slogans, part of our national scene for 120 years.

As early as 1840, when a political party promised the voter "Two Dollars a Day and Roast Beef," the slogan was as much of a part of presidential election campaigns as the handshake and the stump.

It's a fitting arena for the slogan, which was once the battle cry of the Scots. According to World Book Encyclopedia, the word comes from "sluagh," meaning "army," and "gairm," or "call."

The voters of 1840 took up the battle for two dollars, conceding that "Van, Van (Martin Van Buren) is a Used-Up Man." They gave their votes to "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too"—William Henry Harrison, the hero of the Indian battle of Tippecanoe, and his running mate, John Tyler.

In 1864, when Lincoln was running for a second term, the Union was warned: "Don't Swap Horses in the Middle of the Stream." The cry was to echo 80 years later, when Franklin D. Roosevelt won a fourth term in the dark years of World War II.

Horace Greeley thundered, "Turn the Rascals Out" in 1872, but Grant held the presidency for another term.

The country wasn't ready for "The Plumed Knight," as James G. Blaine was called, in 1876, and the election went to Rutherford B. Hayes.

Blaine was back in 1884. But he had the misfortune of being labeled an opponent of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." The Catholics turned against him and helped elect Grover Cleveland.

William McKinley promised "The Full Dinner Pail" in 1900, setting a precedent for Hoover's later pledge of "A Chicken in Every Pot, a Car in Every Garage."

In 1916 the country re-elected Woodrow Wilson with the explanation, "He Kept Us Out of War."

Five months later the U. S. was in the war. When the next election rolled around, the voter wanted "Normalcy" and Warren G. Harding.

In 1924 the electorate decided to "Keep Cool with Coolidge." By 1932 they were ready for a "New Deal," and the "Forgotten Man" gave his vote to FDR.

More recently some people thought "We Need Adlai Badly," but the elections of 1952 and 1956 proved that more people like Ike.

What will the slogans be this year? Maybe we'll hear, "I'll Stick with Dick," . . . or "My Cup of Tea is Kennedy."

Aerial Reconnaissance--2

WASHINGTON, D. C. — For as long as peace lasts, the USA is going to have to maintain aerial surveillance over the Soviet Union and, perhaps, over Communist China.

No other Free World nation has the ability or the resolution for aerial reconnaissance. Today, we have Air Force planes capable of doing the ticklish job with reasonable efficiency—and we have planes-to-be that will perform with even better promise of keeping the Reds constantly under watch.

THEORETICALLY, the best on-the-beat police plane would be a nuclear-powered aircraft. Its endurance, like that of the atomic submarines, would be indefinite. Its size would permit a large and useful assortment of equipment for photographic, radar and infrared instruments. But, alas, the nuclear-powered aircraft has been pushed aside for other projects, and its completion is not in sight. The next best plane for aerial photography is the North American B-70. Its program was also slowed by budget-trimming, but the plane is expected to fly by 1962 — and with some expedient programming, its operational availability could be moved up.

ALTHOUGH NEXT-BEST, the B-70 is very good indeed. It flies at 80,000 feet — which is 30,000 higher than current bombers are flying. It travels at Mach 3 — which means that it could cross the "waist" of continental Russia in about one hour.

General Thomas White, Air

Force chief of staff, indicated to Congressional committees that the B-70, while designed as a supersonic bomber, is the near-ideal for use as a reconnaissance plane. It is employable as an unarmed craft for "peaceful" reconnaissance, or it could be used for strike reconnaissance in wartime. Air Force officials summarize the B-70's utility as follows:

1. BY CARRYING a reconnaissance "package" instead of bombs, the plane is capable of a three-fold mission — straight aerial photography, "ferreting" and radar — infrared detection. Pictures from 80,000 feet might not sound promising for detailed military intelligence, but the requirement of photographic "equipment for the Air Force is quoted by those who know as being five to ten times superior to anything in commercial use. Your reporter was shown photographs taken at this altitude and found them little different from others taken at 40,000. A "ferret" mission is one for scouting out the electromagnetic radiations of the enemy. Radar and infrared detection involve picture-taking and map-making that are not deterred by weather or night.

2. BY RELATIVELY minor modifications, such as removing the bomb-bays and the bombing devices, the B-70 could take on much more equipment and become far more effective in reconnaissance.

For instance, the cameras and radar could be fitted with anti-vibration gadgets and would produce still clearer pictures with finer detail. Infrared sensors could be added to the wings and other extremities. The sensors would extend the sensitivity of the search apparatus to objects inside the enemy territory.

3. BY SOME MAJOR redesigning, the B-70 could be (in Air Force language) "optimized" as a full-time reconnaissance plane. This would mean new apertures for more cameras and might go so far as to include airborne television which would carry the images of enemy missile sites and airfields to the inner offices of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Aerial reconnaissance is the practical peace-keeper of our times. Where treaties are broken and promises fail, the remorseless eye of photography is the only true recorder of what the enemy is getting ready to do. One B-70 aircraft can cover the whole periphery of the Soviet Union in 13 flying hours. With in-flight refueling, the trip could be non-stop.

WITH A FLEET of these planes on patrol, and with occasional and unapologetic penetrations to check on suspicious activities, we could deprive the wily and unconscionable Reds of their major military advantage — the advantage of surprise attack.

No wonder they don't like the idea. So much the better that we possess this paramount capability to be forewarned — hence, forearmed.

STAN DELAPLANE:

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

On that holiday trip
You won't have to worry
If you'll just remember,
Don't be in a hurry.

Tomorrow afternoon it starts. What with the usual Saturday holiday, Sunday and Memorial Day Monday, many are going to maneuver an early start and take to the highways to get where they are going, Friday evening.

The highways will be jammed.

AMBULANCE DRIVERS will be on the alert this weekend. People will be in a hurry to reach their destination to have more time to play.

If everybody would figure that taking a chance just to add five or ten minutes to their holiday rest isn't worth the risk of many times five minutes in a hospital, the experts who figure 400 casualties this weekend would be far out of line.

THERE ARE MANY rules for safety on the highways, many laws to make them safer and much advice.

Just as no chain is stronger than its weakest link, so no highway is safer than its goofiest driver.

That's my only advice. Observe all of the rules yourself and figure all of the other drivers are either drunk or reckless and be on the alert every mile.

Then the ambulance drivers will have a quieter holiday.

YOU PROBABLY are tired of hearing me yip about highway safety and sloppy driving habits and casualties.

Yeah, and I am tired, too, reading all of the gory statistics after every triple holiday. Or after any holiday, in fact, or any ordinary day.

It's all so unnecessary. Just a little more caution by every motorist and less leniency toward drivers proven unsafe, would do it.

IN A CERTAIN BAR, politely known as lounge, there's a sign:

"No person under 21 allowed." Some person, annoyed no doubt by noisome drinkers, added this: "No person over 21 aloud."

UP AT THE MOUTH of the Pass, the wind blows, more often than not.

It bears with it many odd things, according to a resident of North Palm Springs who prefers that his name not be used. "Letters, school papers and essays. Pictures, recipes, and greeting cards. Magazines, books and endearments. All on the wings of the wind."

"AND NOW" he continued, "a marriage license."

Deposited in his yard by the wind, was the document, properly filled out by J. J. Fredericks, justice of the peace, Banning, and dated February 21, 1958. The bridegroom named was Joseph I. McCleric, of Palm Springs.

"This may be reclaimed from P. O. Box 71, North Palm Springs," our correspondent concluded.

Says Harold Coffin: "You can tell some people aren't afraid of work by the way they fight it."

'In My Flying Machine'

It was just 30 years ago that the first airplane stewardess appeared before the amazed passengers.

"Gentlemen," she said, "this is an historic occasion. And I intend to make an historic remark. Gentlemen, for the first time in the history of air transportation: Coffee, tea or milk?"

ON THE EXACT anniversary of stewardess service (I consider it second only to the flight at Kittyhawk) — on the exact day, we flew to Hawaii on a United DC's jet.

This is important because the first stewardess of all time wore the silver wings and the silver smile of United Air Lines.

THERE WERE NO original stewardesses on our flight—I had hoped to interview a first stewardess. Just to see if the jokes are the same. I imagine they are.

However, the Hawaii run is very senior. We were able to find one stewardess who has been flying 14 years.

"NOW THERE IS a movement among the airlines to retire a stewardess after ten years," she said.

The airlines are wrong. I will quote another unnamed stewardess from an unnamed line to prove it.

"WHEN A GIRL starts as a stewardess, it is a very glamorous thing," she said. But after one flight, serving 65 dinners in rough air, she gets educated fast.

"The main value of the job has been the fringe benefits. Time off was one. But that has gone with the jet."

"WE FLY 85 hours a month. On the piston-engine planes, we flew to New York. Laid over a day. Came back and had five days off."

"With the jets we have to fly twice a week and are lucky to have a day or two days off in between."

OUR UNNAMED stewardess (it was NOT the United lady, so quit guessing) — said there is still the benefit of leftovers.

"... And most important, gentlemen . . . if you should find a civilization superior to ours be sure to find out what kind of credit plan it's based on!"

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Odds Are 8 to 1

HOLLYWOOD — Anyone want to get into TV production? Well, before you drop 20 to 30 thousand dollars for a pilot film, you should know that the odds are eight to one against you. And making it even riskier is the fact that a goodly number of these new series will be dropped on or before mid-season.

That on - again - off - again deal for Ginger Rogers to star in a 20th-Fox TV series is on again. A dramatic - variety combo!

Gene Barry made a deal yesterday with Ziv - UA whereby he'll direct four shows a year for the next three years — and they won't necessarily be on his own Bat Masterson series!

JACK BENNY SAYS, "A man has to have a bit of fox in him to be a successful wolf!"

Revlon Cosmetics certainly believes in the power of TV as an advertising medium. From their half - hour $64,000 Question, they expanded to their Revlon Party specs at an hour and a half. But coming up this fall will be just seven specs — each, however, will be two full hours!

ARTHUR MURRAY is after Jack Benny for another Salute show a la the one for Bob Hope this past season. And Arthur is also after the Marx Brothers — all four of them: Groucho, Chico, Harpo and Peppo. But did you know there was a fifth — Gummoo??

Stella Stevens figures the reason foreign actresses like Sophia Loren and Brigitte Bardot are so popular is that they're able to bust right through the language barrier!

COMING UP June 1 is that Wagon Train special we told you about with Joan O'Brien starring as an operatic singer. Joan, a very pleasant singer with a nice middle range, has two other singers dubbing for her operatic chores — one for the high notes and another for the lower register. Should be interesting.

Get set for the George Burns special on June 7. His line-up just so far includes Jack Benny, Betty Grable, Polly Bergen and Bobby Darin for the 60-minute ride.

Person to Person will do anything for a show. To get Greer Garson, they're gonna have to hightail it out to her New Mexico ranch.

THE MULTI-million business of Desilu is in a mighty precarious state. Now that Lucy has divorced Desi, he wants to sell the empire and Lucy says NO. There have been many offers for the Studios, all of which have been turned down. The latest came from Lou Lurie, a millionaire in San Francisco. Lucy, on top of it all, is most sentimental about the former RKO lot where she started in show business herself 30 years ago. And just because the name is changed to Desilu doesn't relieve the heartache she'd endure if she sold and had no "home" in which to work.

In something to make you wonder: Tyrone Power's personal effects will be auctioned off in some Greenwich Village auction rooms (NYC) next week! Doesn't seem quite fitting somehow.

COLUMBIA PICTURES wasted no time after reading those headlines a couple weeks ago — they registered the title, Around the World Under Water.

Jeff Chandler believes: "A guy never realizes what his wife is worth until the judge tells him what the alimony payments are!"

MGM is having a heckuva time filming the location scenes in Mexico for Go Naked in the World. The Mexico censors have demanded many, many revisions in the script — wouldn't even permit lensing of barefoot children. They don't want to give poor impressions of their land.

PRODUCER JAMES (Felix Gates to Hell) Clavell is the first to jump at the story of the U. S. flyer downed in Russia on May 1. It will be True Story of Frances Powers, American. All efforts of Clavell to contact the immediate family have failed. Phones of the wife and parents have been cut and Clavell's only contact is through the family physician who promises to "convey messages — ip more."

The cost of the new John Wayne starrer, Go North, including the monies to actually put it in the movie houses, will amount to the price the United States paid for Alaska — $7,200,000! They won't be going to Alaska for many more movies at that rate.

Remember When...

MAY 26, 1950

Mario Sacco's heart in far off Torino, Italy, is no doubt palpitating to the tune of one of Cupid's arrows that had its origin right here in Palm Springs.

In a letter written to the Doll House, Palm Springs, he writes in a fine Italian hand that he is a "carabiniere" who led as tranquil and as peaceful a life as his duties permitted. But since viewing a picture of a Villager attired in an abbreviated swimming suit standing in front of George Strebe's Doll House he has been obsessed with only one objective—to obtain her name and address. The picture was published in a Torino newspaper.

Angelo Pistoni of the Amado Cafe translated the letter for Strebe and the latter is now engaged in assisting, you guessed it, "cupid in finding the name and address of the girl."

"Key" members honored by the Lions Club for membership efforts this week were Ralph Nesmith, Merrill Crockett, Francis Crockett, George Oliver and Ray Cree. Starting June 6, the summer "informal" meetings will be held at the Palm Springs Drug Company.

Palm Springs has been allocated $3,369.44 as its second tax installment from Riverside County. Indio received $3,780.11.

MAY 26, 1930

The Indio hospital is being taken over as a community hospital, with facilities to handle emergency county cases. Dr. Jones of Coachella is heading a drive to stabilize the hospital financially. Since Palm Springs uses this hospital so often in emergency, it was thought that many friends here and in Cathedral City might like to help in this worthy cause.

AFTER SUN-SET

Another Display of Friendship

By GEORGE LAINE

Last week a group of people ganged up to preserve a theater here and if that wasn't enough for your heartstrings, read on.

Next Monday night — or, more properly, Tuesday morning since it'll actually happen at 12:30 a. m. — most of the Village's bartenders, waitresses, parking attendants, bus boys, maitre d's and club and hotel managers will file into Bob Howard's Sportsman for a benefit movie for one of their number.

HE'S ERNIE MEINEL, for more than a decade one of the town's "regulars."

Ernie was working at Ethel's Hideaway on May 19 when he was stricken with a heart attack.

At Desert Hospital, where he was taken at 9:10 p.m., last Thursday, doctors immediately placed Ernie in an oxygen tent and termed his condition "critical." Over the weekend most of Ernie's friends were disconsolate.

YESTERDAY, ERNIE was taken out of the oxygen tent — although it is still on stand-by — and Hospital Administrator Bob Henwood said that Ernie will be allowed to have visitors and also that he can receive cards and letters.

Like a lot of us, Ernie wasn't prepared for the sudden emergency and that's what Tuesday morning's session is aimed at aiding.

Bob Howard, Ace Hudkins and Jerry Conlin got together and decided it would be a great gesture for some of Ernie's long-time friends to get a fund together to help pay his hospital bill. (Ernie went in on emergency and has been piling up a bill ever since.)

THE MOVIE? IT'S going to be a re-showing of the colorful "New Riders of the Old West" which stars a lot of the bartenders and waitresses who were around town when the movie was made back in 1935.

Last year, in a midnight showing at Sherman's Steak House, the movie packed the house. (Even more fun than the movie were the catcalls when certain "cow-boys" swaggered on-camera.)

Anyway, that's the story and that's the movie. All of the profits from the Sportsman — from midnight until 2 a.m. — are going to the fund. Jerry is personally kicking his entire salary for the night into the hopper. And a lot of other people in this town are coming through like champs for Ernie.

IF YOU HAVEN'T seen the film, better plan to make it. . . If you have seen the picture, go anyway. If you don't know Ernie yet, you can meet him when he gets out of the hospital which ought to be right soon now if this display of friendship gives his morale the kind of a boost I think it will.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Watch for big, b-i-g, BIG, B-I-G news from the Hilltop Room within a couple of days. . . Every time Pappy Landfield can tear himself away from gin rummy with Alyce, the town's No. 1 grouch comes up with a wild idea. . .

Didja hear where actress - model Suzy Parker said she loved her husband, French writer Pierre de la Salla — "but not to be married to him." She'll wind it up in London.

KDES sounds like "Matt Dennis Day" every day. . . In addition to keeping the Denis LPs up on the turntables, they're also glutting the market with Matt's two newest original tunes registered by other artists. . . One would be Sinatra's "It's Over" on Capitol, the other Danny Costello's brand-new Coral waxing of "Love Is Wonderful Everywhere," a sure-fire winner. . . Dick Jacobs' band backs up Danny on this swinger. . .

DORIS KING BELTS A TUNE for patrons at the Hilltop Room and is caught in the act by the camera. The song stylist has compiled a lengthy list of credits in top Southland supper clubs and runs a vocal gamut from show tunes to standards to Continental melodies. (Desert Sun Photo).

Palm Springs Debs Elect Marie Jambretz to Presidency

Vacation days are near at hand and Palm Springs Debs will be putting aside their Deb costumes, which they have worn for countless publicity shots for Palm Springs. For many of them, their Deb days are ended. Only the elected officers are definitely Debs for next year, all others will be competing for membership in the fall.

Palm Springs Debs chose Marie Jambretz as president, when they held their annual election meeting this week. She succeeds Maria Marmalejo.

Other officers elected at the meeting, which was held Tuesday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce board room, were: Pat Patzner, 1st vice president; Sally Stephens, secretary; Sandy Heuck, treasurer. The office of 2nd vice president was held open for a Palm Valley senior.

Each year the Debs amass their modeling fees and give the total amount to a local charity. This year it amounted to $115 and the Debs voted to give it to Welfare & Friendly Aid.

The Debs also balloted on the Deb of the Year, with the result to be announced at the annual Splash Party. This end-of-the-season affair, arranged each year by the Debs Patronesses, honors the old and new officers and the Deb of the Year.

A swim party and barbecue, it will be held at the Continental one day next week. Assisting Lynne Jennings in hosting the event will be Patronesses Mrs. Stewart Williams, Mrs. Edward Canby, Mrs. Joan McManus. Honorary Advisor Hildy Crawford will present the Deb of the Year award.

New Dinner Table Is Legless

NEW YORK (UPI) — An aircraft development engineer wants to cut the legs out from under American dining tables.

A working model of Walter R. Bush's guitar-shaped table was displayed at a recent food symposium here before going on a national tour of museums and department stores. The table, with a melamine top in a wood-grain finish, hangs from the ceiling on a series of slender rods placed so they don't interfere with across-the-table visibility.

Bush said he chose the guitar shape to seat two to eight diners "in sociable proximity."

Other innovations included a self-contained ceiling and table edge lighting system, a center well with a fountain for flower arrangements, a built-in telephone connection, twin electric warmers, and a pop-up television set. Switches for all these were concealed beneath the table.

Return Home from Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Frederick of Palm Desert have returned to their home on Abronia Trail after an eight week motor trip to St. Petersburg, Florida, where they visited Mrs. Frederick's sister and two brothers. Enroute home they stopped off in Butler, Pennsylvania, their former home town.

Serape carrots, leave whole and cook until tender. Roll them in your favorite candied syrup and serve as a special treat at dinner.

Musicals Money Raiser for Scholarship

An entertaining evening of fun and melody is promised tomorrow evening when the Wynne Harmon Vocal Studio presents 25 voices in "The Unmusical Impresario," a one-act musical comedy.

The show, which will be staged in the Palm Springs Riviera auditorium at 8:15 p.m. will be a benefit for Summer Music Camp Scholarships, with donations of a dollar each asked.

The curtain raiser will present "Young Songsters," a 6-12 group, singer - accordionist Ray Santo and Eddie Dominguez, concert pianist.

To remove lipstick stains, rub the cloth with vaseline or glycerine, then launder as usual.

Ribs Are for Barbecueing

Of the endless numbers of meats for barbecueing, spareribs always seem the most rewarding.

Always remember, spareribs are pork and must be well done. Barbecue slowly, turn often and baste generously with a good hickory barbecue sauce. Follow this recipe carefully and your success is assured.

Select 5 lbs. extra - meaty loin back spareribs — allow $\frac{3}{4}$ to 1 pound per serving — cut in serving proportions. Consult your meat man when buying.

Either parboil or braise ribs in oven at 350 degrees approximately 1 hour, until excess fat has been cooked away and they are almost tender.

Have a cup of hickory barbecue sauce warm in small sauce pan on back of barbecue grill.

Place ribs on grill after pre-cooking, about 7 inches above coals — brush both sides with sauce. Turn often, brushing with sauce until done — easy does it — spareribs being pork, they must be well done. If ribs are done ahead of time, wrap individual servings, brushed with warm sauce, in aluminum foil and place on back of grill.

Just - right ribs are crispy - brown outside, tender and juicy inside. Lean shows no pink when cut.

If you prefer, lace ribs on spit — barbecue over hot coals — brush frequently with warm hickory barbecue sauce.

Here's a good easy way to start your charcoal or briquette fire. It's easy to make your own "starter chimney." Cut the bottom out of an empty 2-pound coffee can; with a beer can opener cut 6 or 8 triangle holes at the bottom. Straighten out the triangles to form legs.

For 5 or 10 minutes submerge a half dozen briquettes in starter liquid in a covered 1 - pound coffee can. Drain the starter

Poulsons Back from Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Poulson have returned from a honeymoon trip to Catalina Island and San Diego and are at home at 699 Indian Trail. The Poulsons (she is the former Elizabeth Gardner) were married in Los Angeles at the Church of the Latter Day Saints on April 30th.

While in San Diego they were honored at a reception given by Mrs. Poulson's son and daughter, Birdie Best and Dale L. Gardner. Since their return to Palm Springs they were honored guests at a surprise party given by a group of friends from the Latter Day Saints Church and at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schack at Blue Skies Trailer Park.

The new Mrs. Poulson is a former resident of San Diego and has lived in Palm Springs for the past six years. Her husband who has lived in China for the past six years, was formerly from San Louis Valley, Colorado.

The Poulsons will spend the summer in China, returning to Palm Springs sometime in September.

C.C.P.T.A. Elects Slate of Officers

The Parent - Teachers Association of Cathedral City elementary school elected officers Wednesday evening at the final meeting of the group this school year.

Retiring president George Rodman introduced the nominees selected by the nominating committee. The membership passed a unanimous ballot to place all the candidates in office.

The newly - elected officers are Rita Nehl, president; Modine Hodgen, vice president; Nedra Hollister, recording secretary; Luella Fincher, corresponding secretary; Jackie Powers, treasurer, and Harry Estel, auditor. The position of historian will be filled by appointment at a later date.

Chester Sproule, principal of the school, installed the new officers. Following the installation, President Rita Nehl spoke briefly, outlining tentative plans for a more active P.T.A. next year and solicited the support of all parents and teachers. A former teacher and principal, Mrs. Nehl has been very active in community affairs since moving to the desert a few years ago.

At the conclusion of the business meeting program chairman Michael Arsulich presented the speaker, Dr. E. M. Brown of Rancho Mirage, whose topic was "Nutrition."

The meeting concluded with refreshments prepared by P.T.A. mothers under the chairmanship of Room Mother chairman Pauline Ridley.

When packing articles that are to be shipped and are likely to jostle in a box, use adhesive tape to fix the article to the bottom of the carton.

WHY SMART WOMEN COOK WITH MODERN GAS:

ACCURATE top burner temperature control lets you cook your best, automatically. Just dial the degree of temperature you want. The amazing "burner with a brain" takes the pan's temperature, then raises or lowers the clean, blue flame to maintain the exact heat. Coffee won't boil over. Eggs won't stick. Foods won't scorch or burn. Today's automatic gas ranges have so many wonderful features—yet costs less to buy, install, and operate—you'd think everyone would cook with modern gas. As a matter of fact, 9 out of 10 smart Southern California women do!

Range illustrated; beautiful new Magic Chef, built to Gold Star Award standards.

CYO Holds Semi-Formal Spring Dance

The Catholic Youth Organization of Palm Springs held its first Annual Spring Dance at the Palm Springs Playhouse Saturday night. For the occasion, they had invited several religious groups including Catholic Youth groups from Banning, Apple Valley and Twenty-nine Palms, the Palm Springs Resort Temple Youth of Jewish Community Center, the Episcopal Young Churchmen, and others. Over 150 high school students attended the party, all in semi-formal attire.

The evening was highlighted by the crowning of Mildred Pete and Steve Rosen as Queen and King of the Dance. The crowns were bestowed by Michael Cohen, president of the Palm Springs C. Y. O. and Howard Charnaw representing the President of the Resort Temple Youth.

The music was provided by the Pat Barbara orchestra.

There were prizes given to the winners of three ordnance contests: the cha - cha - cha was won by Bob Beck and his partner, the pop dance by a couple from Apple Valley and the slow dance by Bob Johnson and Leslie Seagle, the judges being Rabbi Hurwitz, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. McNeil from Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cohen, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Allee.

Attractive decorations of balloons, streamers, parasols and palm trees adorned the Playhouse. Refreshments consisting of finger sandwiches, cookies and punch, were served by Mrs. Allee, Miss Shirley Elliott and Miss Mary Dowd, sponsors of the C. Y. O.

Father Raymond Beaudry emceed the dance which ended at midnight.

TALL TALES

By NANCY SMITH

Tomorrow's Citizen

I WAS BORN IN Tennessee on April 18, 1951. I have two brothers and one sister, two grandparents, two aunts and uncles, and two cousins. I would like to be a mountain climber so that when I get big enough I could climb Mt. Everest. I have been many places such as Arizona, Virginia, Mexico, Garden City, Idyllwild, Marysville, and many other places. My favorite television stars are: Superman, Maverick, Johnny Ringo, Sun Dance, and Walt Disney. I have not heard the radio very much, so I do not know who I like best in it. In the movies I like "Tarzan," "The Dog of Flanders," and I guess that is about all. My girl friends are Tamar, Kevin, and Judy. My boy friends are John, Greg, Rene, Andy, Ricky, Chris, and Jamie. I like school games as baseball and dodgeball. At home I like baseball and cowboys. My favorite school activities are the same as above. That's all about my life so far. Stories Of the Week

TELEPHONE POLE
By Tommy Rastle (13),
Healing Waters Trailer Village
Desert Hot Springs

I am a telephone pole. You may think that is a long way from the truth. I am fortunate enough to be on a busy street in a small town.

The sounds on this street are varied, and some of them I make with my wires. In the spring time many little zephyrs blow by, and my wires will play songs like Strauss waltzes. In the winter my tunes become low and mournful as though they were written by Bach or Beethoven. In the early spring the frenzied "Saber Dance" seems appropriate.

At this time of year I collect many kites. Some are ornate and beautiful. At any time of year I am responsible for transmitting many conversations. Some of them are short and end with, "Good bye, Mr. Jones." Others are very long with many silent periods and end with lots of giggling. I'm ashamed that I carry some gossip. Upon occasions it makes my wires turn red. I'm afraid that sometime I will be unable to tolerate such bad conduct.

In May, I have many little guests who call on me to chirp about their trip from the south. I see many a budding romance that turns into a happy nest, all in one spring.

I hear many voices of children on their way to school every morning, and weary ones on their way home.

Later in the evening I see many cars rush by, carrying drivers with determined looks on their faces, each trying to beat the other home to dinner.

Twice, before the rush hour started, I was nudged gently by two very upset ladies. It seemed as though they were concerned about what to tell their husbands when they got home.

So you see my existence isn't really dull, is it?

RUNDOWN, CRIPPLED, AND A WRECK

By Chrys Stafford (13),
1950 El Oro Way, Palm Springs
I am a television set. I am run by remote control. You know, the kind that has little boxes you can take to your chair. From the chair you can change the station, turn the sound off, and turn the whole thing on or off.

I'm Rundown, Crippled, and a Wreck.
When I first came to my present, and only home, I was not rundown, crippled or a wreck, but that was when I first came here. It's amazing to see people so thrilled with my remote control. They pushed the little buttons continually, which made me extremely dizzy. I wasn't used to this type of treatment.

Naturally they had to put things on my back.
Oh, and that playful kitten, (bless her soul) just loves to chew on my wires.

I'll tell you about one of our typical Friday nights.
I am turned on at 7:30 p.m. and we watch a western. They turn my sound on and off, which is bad for my voice as I get such terrible sore throats.

8:30 p.m. we watch something else, and they fool around with the buttons again. Sometimes I get stubborn and don't move, but they get mad, so usually I move. The people turn my sound up so high, I have to shout and get laryngitis and can't talk.

When the kitten plays with my wires, I go all haywire.

At 10 p.m. we watch "Twilight Zone," that is, the people do. I get scared and try to turn it off, but the people get very upset and call a doctor for me.

After that I feel I deserve to go to bed. After all, I'm only a year old, but the people don't, they stay up and watch movies half the night.

Moore Impressive in Win By TKO Over Besmanoff

Has Two Big Bouts Lined Up

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — (UPI) — Fight-fighter Archie Moore intimidated today he wouldn't mind going partners with Uncle Sam.

Moore fought himself into a chance to pay one of the highest income taxes on record Wednesday night when he battled into condition in two rounds and then outsmarted and out scraped Willie Besmanoff to score a technical knockout win at 1:32 of the 10th.

The victory, for which Moore was paid $25,000, left him ready to begin the final training routine for a defense about July 18 of the light heavyweight championship he won in 1952. A win then would set him up for a heavyweight title chase against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in September.

IF HE SHOULD GO through with both bouts, and both had been offered to him and tentatively accepted, he could pay taxes on as much as $3,000,000 for 1960.

Moore was impressive against Besmanoff. Once he broke out in sweat from every pore after he formed a slow target for two rounds. But equally impressive was Jack Fugazy of Feature Sports Inc., promoters of Johansson's title defense against Floyd Patterson next month.

"We've guaranteed Moore $200,000 for a defense against Eric Schoenher," he said. "It'll be on a Monday night about July 18. Then if Johansson beats Patterson, Moore gets the next title chance. And we've got Johansson under contract to make his next defense for us."

IT WAS MOORE'S 17th win and Besmanoff's 20th loss. Moore was well ahead on points at the finish. Both judges, Tony Coppi and Kelse McClure, gave him a 43-38 margin, referee Frank Gilmer had it 43-37 and the United Press International card was 42-37 for the winner.

Fall Wind Pays $60 in Upset Win In Feature Race

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — Dance Lesson, with Bill Shoemaker in the saddle, led a field of eight postward today in the $15,000-added Cabrillo Stakes at Hollywood Park.

Others in the featured seventh race included Ronnie's Ace, Captain Fair, Park Royal, Moo Bob, Light Talk, Novalook and Joyster.

Fall Wind paid $60 to $2 Wednesday in an upset 1 1/4 length win in the featured $7,500 World Trade Week Purse with a 1:10 1/5 clocking over the six-furlong course. La Plume was second, followed by Drago.

Tout Howard As Successor To Babe Ruth

PITTSBURGH — (UPI) — Los Angeles outfielder Frank Howard, signed off the Ohio State campus for $108,000, has been billed in some circles as the successor to Babe Ruth.

Wednesday night, Howard unleashed a typical Ruthian blast, a home run over the left field wall at Forbes Field that measured between 560 and 570 feet, while the Dodgers were topping Pittsburgh, 5-1.

THE TAPE MEASURE smash came on the 25th anniversary of Ruth's last three home runs, also hit at Forbes Field.

Howard, a taciturn fellow around newspapermen, couldn't muster much enthusiasm over the hit. "I think I hit a high slider," he said. "The only comment the 6' 6" 243-pound slugger had on his prodigious clout.

It was the second home run of the season for Howard, the ex-All America basketball player who hit 43 out of the park for two minor league clubs last year.

JOE TUCKER, a Pittsburgh sportscaster, said he was parking his car just outside of Forbes Field when he heard of Howard's home run on his radio. He jumped out of his car to see the ball bouncing across the street with a youngster in hot pursuit.

"A fellow standing nearby pointed out where the ball hit," Tucker said. "I started walking off the distance... I wear a 14 shoe, the same size as Howard, you know, and it was 56 paces from the left field wall to where the ball hit the street. My pace measures about a yard so it had to be about 160 to 170 feet. Added to the 400-foot mark where the ball left the park, that gives Howard a pretty good hit, doesn't it," Tucker said.

RUTH, WHOSE FINAL major league home run as a member of the Boston Braves in 1935 cleared the Forbes Field right field grandstand for the first time, hit a 600-footer at Detroit, according to popular legend.

Wally Berger of the Boston Braves smashed one over the same spot as Howard's Wednesday night, and his was listed at 580 to 600 feet.

And Mickey Mantle of the present day Yankees hit a four-bagger measured at 562 feet.

But Howard's couldn't have been much, if any, behind.

SOLE U.S. HOPE IN QUARTER FINALS

Cochran Advances In British Amateur

PORTRUSH, Northern Ireland (UPI) — Bob Cochran, 47, St. Louis, the lone U. S. survivor in the British Amateur Golf Championship, advanced to the quarter final round today by whipping Irish champion John Duncan, 6 and 4.

The paper salesman turned in a superb 32 on the front nine, embellishing his score with an eagle and three birdies to reach the turn with a five-hole lead over Duncan.

Cochran's only bad hole was the 10th when he wound up with a double bogey six after catching the rough with his tee shot and then flubbing his second shot.

However, Cochran closed out the abbreviated match on the 14th chipping nearly to within six feet of the pin and dropping his putt for a par three.

COCHRAN HAD REASON to be proud of that front nine performance. He eagled the par five second hole with a long drive and a second shot that landed only 15 feet from the pin, then rolled in the putt. The veteran Yank needed only 11 putts over the first nine holes.

Irish Joe Carr continued his bid for his third title by posting a 1-up victory over England's Brian Chapman, who produced the tournament's biggest upset Wednesday by eliminating top U.S. hope Tim Holland, Rockville Centre, N.Y.

Others who advanced into the quarter finals included Ireland's Tom Craddock and John Glover, Walker Cupper Mike Bonallack and Jimmy Walker of Scotland.

Johnston, Cotchonis Leading at Vegas

LAS VEGAS (UPI) — Bill Johnston and Gene Cotchonis today led the field into the final 36 holes of the Nevada Open Golf Championships with 143s.

Johnston, of Provo, Utah, shot a 66 Wednesday, tying both the course record and Cotchonis, of Whittier, for the lead at the Half-way mark of the tournament.

Palmer was expected to get his toughest competition in his 72-hole test over the 6,605 yard Speedway course from Finsterwald, third-place money winner Ken Venturi, Mike Souchak, Julius Boros, a winner last week, and Jerry Barber, who has won twice this year and finished in the top five on five occasions.

The chances were excellent that sometime during the week a new record would be established for the course.

Palmer, who has missed only four opportunities to complete this year, has won five of his 16 tournament starts and has been in the top five 10 times to earn $49,803.40.

THIS PERFORMANCE might not seem surprising, except that no other player has won more than two tournaments and only four of the nearly 100 consistent competitors have been able to do this. Palmer has nearly doubled the earnings of the runner-up, Dow Finsterwald, who has picked up $27,321.08.

Youth Pacing Oriole, Giant Race for Flag

McCormick, Estrada Continue Winning For Loop Leaders

United Press International Kids get blamed for everything nowadays, so if the Giants and Orioles go on to win, a lot of grumbling losers will probably blame it on 21-year-old Mike McCormick and 22-year-old Chuck Estrada.

Here are a couple of kids you really can point a finger at for keeping their teams on top.

McCormick has won six games for the Giants already, his latest victory being a 5-1 decision over the Phillies Wednesday night in a game limited to eight innings by rain. McCormick's five-hit effort moved the Giants a full game ahead of the National League pack.

Willie Kirkland helped McCormick with a two-run homer and also contributed a double and a single.

ESTRADA, a rookie fastballer who wasn't even listed on the Baltimore roster this spring, didn't do badly for a kid, either, when he limited the White Sox to five hits and kept the Orioles atop the American League with a 3-2 victory. Pinchhitter Clint Courtney paved the way for Estrada's third victory by singling home the winning run.

Still another youngster, 23-year-old Frank Howard set tongues wagging with a tremendous 560-foot homer that helped the Dodgers defeat the Pirates, 5-1. Howard's homer, off loser Jim Umpbaugh, was one of the longest ever hit in the majors. Only Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle are credited with longer ones.

IN OTHER NL games, the Cardinals defeated the Braves, 5-3, and the Reds beat the Cubs, 7-4, in a game halted by rain in the eighth inning.

The Indians downed the Senators, 1-0, in 11 innings, the Tigers mauled the Yankees, 9-3, and the Red Sox snapped a 10-game losing streak with a 5-3 decision over the Athletics in the other AL contests.

George Crowe's two-run pinch homer with two out in the ninth gave the Cards their victory over the Braves. Crowe's homer, the 11th one he has hit in a pinch hitting role and established a new major league record.

The Reds celebrated night baseball's 25th anniversary at Cincinnati with their rain-abbreviated triumph over the Cubs. Southpaw Jim O'Toole posted his fourth victory although routed in the eighth just before rain halted play.

Final Obstacle to Dodger Ball Park Removed Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The City Council Wednesday approved a Los Angeles Dodger tract map of Chavez Ravine, eliminating one of the last major obstacles to construction of the $2,000 seat baseball stadium.

The council's vote, 11-4, was taken at the conclusion of a public hearing during which opposing sides were heard.

The Dodgers hope to have the stadium built for at least part of next year's season.

Bunning Not Going To Yanks in Trade

DETROIT (UPI) — President Bill DeWitt of the Detroit Tigers promptly scotched a report today that pitcher Jim Bunning is headed for the New York Yankees.

Bunning, a 17-game winner last season, had been reported going to the Yankees in exchange for Bob Turley, Hector Lopez and Cletis Boyer.

Favor Peret 11-5 to Take Welter Crown

Jordan, Challenger, Complete Training For Friday's Bout

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — (UPI) — Benny Kid Peret, of Cuba, an impressive challenger who claims to be only 20 years old is favored at 11-5 to win the welterweight crown Friday night from California's Don Jordan, a question-mark champion at 25.

Both boxers finished their training in good shape and took only light limbering exercises today in final preparation for their nationally-televised 15 - rounder at the Las Vegas Convention Center, the world's swankiest fight arena.

PROMOTERS MEL GREB and Jack Doyle hope for 4,000 spectators and a gross gate of $35,000 but the ticket sale fell off after Jordan's poor showing last week at Baltimore. He lost a non-title tuneup decision to Candy McFarland of Philadelphia.

Peret, son of a Santa Clara (Cuba) sugar field worker, is favored to beat lanky Jordan of Los Angeles because of his stamina, ruggedness, aggressiveness and supposedly superior punch. Also because champion Don lost his last two non-title bouts, on a decision to McFarland and on a fourth-round knockout to Federico Thompson at Buenos Aires, Dec. 12.

PARET FOUGHT that same Thompson at New York on March 25 and got a 12-round draw. Cuban Benny is unbeaten in his last five fights, although they include two draws. His best wins in the unbeaten string were two decisions over contender Charlie Scott of Philadelphia.

Five Holders of Sprint Record to Meet at Compton

COMPTON (UPI) — Five co-holders of the 93 - second world record for the 100-yard dash will be on their marks June 3 at the Compton Invitational Track Meet.

They are Bob Morrow, triple gold medal winner in the 1956 Olympic Games; Ray Norton, San Jose; Dave Sime, the former Duke University speedster; Lemmon King, 1956 Olympic team member, and Bill Woodhouse, like Morrow a product of Abilene Christian College in Texas.

Village Golfers to Try To "Beat the Champ"

Desert area golfers, along with club swingers on practically every course from coast to coast, will trot the fairways during the week of June 5 to June 11 in an effort to "beat the champ" and to aid golf and many other worthwhile charities.

June 11 has been designated as National Golf Day this year and on that day Bob Rosburg, 1959 PGA champion, and Billie Caspar Jr., 1959 USTGA champion, will meet at Firestone Country Club in Akron, Ohio, in an 18 - hole "Round of Champions."

ALL OVER THE NATION, including the desert area, golfers will try to beat the score of the winner that day.

Amateur and professional men and women, of all ages, will contribute $1 or more each to charity for the privilege of competing against the winner.

Men may use their normal handicaps and women are permitted to use their regular handicap plus an additional seven strokes.

THOSE WHO "BEAT" the winner of the Rosburg-Casper match, using established handicaps or any other authorized handicap system, will receive National Golf Day medals from the PGA.

As in previous years, golfers will be permitted to play as many rounds as they like in competing with the champion.

Only requirements are that all rounds be played between June 5 and June 11, inclusive, and that each contestant pay the $1 entry fee.

SO FAR, golf charities and projects have received $742,000 in the eight years National Golf Day has been observed, from the National Golf Fund, Inc., the agency set up to disburse the day's receipts.

Several Palm Springs area golfers held medals won in previous years for "beating the champ," and more will try for the honor this year.

Every local course still open, Indian Wells, Eldorado, O'Donnell, Tamarisk, Municipal Course, will have its quota of golfers out during the week.

Final call for registration of boys from 8 to 12 years of age who did not make a Little League team or who want to sign up for the minor league was issued today by Roy Grov, president of the Minor League and on the staff of the City Recreation and Special Events department.

The boys are asked to be at the Rodeo Grounds at 6 p.m. today. The lists will be closed after tonight, Grov said.

MORE THAN 200 BOYS signed up for the Minor League Monday evening.

Expansion of the league from four teams to eight was announced by Grov. Each team will have a roster of not more than 20 players.

MINOR LEAGUE GAMES will be played every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, all double-headers, with the first game at 7 and the second at 8:30. These games will be played at the new field nearing completion at the site of the former Lienau Village. There will also be games at the Rodeo Grounds every Wednesday night at the same hours.

Davenport to Be Out Three Weeks More

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Third baseman Jim Davenport of the San Francisco Giants, will leave Milwaukee Hospital Friday morning, but he still fears it may be as much as three weeks before he can resume playing.
